

HOME HAPPENINGS.

—Back to work at the Normal college.

—Forest trees are beginning to take on fall tints.

—Dr. B. E. Coe and family have moved into the rooms over W. L. Bryson's store.

—The real and personal property of the late Mrs. Millie Kinley was appraised Wednesday afternoon.

—A stated communication of the local Masonic lodge will be held this (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock.

—All roads will lead to Canfield week after next, and some of them will be found rough and rocky, too.

—The Missionary Society of the M. E. Church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. L. Glavin on the southern border of the village.

—John and J. R. Taber caught seven bass in the Ellsworth lake Tuesday evening, the aggregate weight of the catch being more than 15 pounds.

—The board of county fair managers met in Canfield last Friday and completed arrangements for the big fair to be held Sept. 27, 28 and 29.

—Squads of people may be seen almost any hour in the day searching for mushrooms in fields adjacent to the village.

—J. A. Kline of this township received three car loads, or 90 head, of western cattle last Sunday night. They will be fattened for market.

—While fishing in the Ellsworth lake the other day postmaster R. Taber caught a five-pound bass, the largest fish taken from the lake this season.

—Canfield people are not yet enjoying the comforts of natural gas but are living in hopes that the piping of gas into the village will not be much longer delayed.

—Hon. W. S. Anderson of Youngstown delivered a fine address in the M. E. Church of this place last Sunday morning before a large and appreciative audience.

—The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Manchester of Youngstown, formerly of Canfield, died last week and was buried Friday afternoon in the village cemetery.

—Twin daughters were born last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. John Van Fossen, who reside in the western part of this township. One of the children died Sunday.

—The Canfield and Greenford cornet bands will furnish music at the Canfield fair, the first named playing on Wednesday, Sept. 28, and the second Thursday, Sept. 29.

—Wonderful climate, this, Monday afternoon, the mercury registered 87 degrees in the shade and Tuesday afternoon it was cold enough for overcoats and heavy wraps.

—James Williams of this place is buying hundreds of sheep which are to be shipped to eastern markets. Last fall Mr. Williams bought and shipped more than 3,000 sheep.

—Complaint comes from several parts of the village of raids of fruit thieves. It is said that some of the offenders are known and that prosecution is likely to be their portion.

—Miss Mary Kirk of Youngstown, formerly of Canfield, who recently underwent a surgical operation in the City hospital, is rapidly improving and expects to leave the hospital within a few days.

—Mrs. P. T. Jones on Tuesday left at the Dispatch office a hen's egg that measured 6 1/2 by 3 1/2 inches and weighed more than four ounces. After the hen's great effort she died, having been found dead on the nest.

—Rapid progress is being made on the macadam roads being constructed west and north of the village. Under favorable weather conditions both highways will be completed 1 1/2 miles before the first of December.

—There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Men's Club in the Presbyterian church last Friday night, this being the first session after the summer vacation. A program of special interest will be presented at the October meeting.

—Three special Erie trains from Youngstown have been arranged for to bring the people to the Canfield fair. Two trains will be run Wednesday, Sept. 28, the first leaving Youngstown at 8 a. m. and the second at 8:30 a. m., this last train making all stops between Youngstown and Canfield. Only one train will be run Thursday, Sept. 29, leaving at 8 a. m. and making all stops.

—The Canfield township schools which opened last week Monday are in charge of the following teachers: District No. 1, Miss Fern Liggett; No. 2, Miss Ella Kent; No. 3, Miss Ruth Delfs; No. 4, Miss Ruth Duncan; No. 5, Miss Lucy Culp; No. 7, Miss Mabel Dyball; No. 8, Miss Edna Heintzelman; No. 10, William Parshali; No. 11, Miss Ethel Schaff. There are 182 youth of school age in the township.

—One day last week while H. C. Ogline was descending a ladder he made the mistake of thinking he had reached the ground when he had two runs to go and stepped backward to space. He fell heavily on his left leg, dislocating the knee cap. The injury is a painful one and has since kept Mr. Ogline in bed, but he is getting along nicely and hopes to be out and around as usual the coming week.

—Carpenters have erected the frame work at the head of central park on which a large tank is to be placed to be kept filled with water from the drilled well, a power pump being used. A great quantity of water will be required in the construction of the macadam roads and the township trustees decided to secure the supply from the well drilled for oil five years ago by local capital. It is possible that the tank may become a feature as the village council contemplates removing the water trough in the square to the drilled well.

—The Dispatch had a pleasant call last Saturday afternoon from William Burky, who has the distinction of operating the only water power grist mill in this county. Mr. Burky some time ago took charge of the old Schilling mill northwest of Berlin Center and is operating it with marked success. During a period of three weeks this summer he was unable to run the mill on account of low water, and for some months has been considering the matter of installing power which may be depended upon at all times. If this is done the last of a large number of water power operated grist mills in Mahoning county will have disappeared.

—Dennis Mahan, a feeble minded inmate of the county infirmary whose hands were badly burned during the fire a year ago last January, wandered away from the institution last Friday, for the second time within a month. Diligent search for him finally resulted in his discovery Wednesday in an abandoned building near Camp Park, only two miles from the infirmary.

—The North-Eastern Ohio Normal College opened Tuesday morning with an attendance approximating one hundred. Many of the old students have returned and with them are numerous new faces. Quite a number of young people have signified their intention to matriculate the coming week. There is every promise that this year will be a most successful one for this old and popular institution of learning. Chapel exercises Tuesday morning were largely attended and much interest was manifested by pupils and citizens. The efficient corps of instructors of last year are in charge as follows: President, J. F. Guy, Prof. Lester Zimmerman, Prof. Emmet Butterfield, Miss May Irwin, Miss Edith Coope, Mrs. Laura Craig, Miss Florence Crawford.
